

The Vietnam Babylift 30th Anniversary Awards Committee

*The Awards Committee:
Jennifer Nguyen Noone
Lana Mae Noone
Charles B. Wilber*

is proud to present to the thirty-nine American women, civilian and military, who died in the crash of a C-5A cargo plane in South Vietnam on April 4, 1975

The Heather Constance Noone Memorial Award

These courageous women died heroically while caring for the children being evacuated on the first authorized "Operation Babylift" flight out of Vietnam. Operation Babylift went on to evacuate over 2,500 Vietnamese war orphans to their adoptive families throughout the United States and around the world.

With this award we pay tribute to the brave women who gave their lives so that others might fulfill theirs. We will never forget you and we will be eternally grateful for your compassion and courage. You are the full measure of American heroism and we are honored to recognize you today.
